(t) Wherever the typing test is prescribed, it shall be taken on computers and no candidate shall be allowed to take the test on the typewriter unless specifically directed to do so by the Chief Justice.

(u) The final result shall be declared on or before 30th November, of the same year and the select list and waiting list shall be drawn accordingly. The Chief Justice, in his discretion, may direct to complete the entire process of making appointments under these Rules prior to the aforesaid date.

(v) The select/waiting list shall be valid till 31st December of the same year or up to filling up all notified vacancies, whichever is later.

(w) (i) With prior approval of the Chief Justice, the Member Secretary shall allocate the selected candidates to different Divisions keeping in view the preference given by candidate in the application form, by considering the availability of posts in order of merit.

(ii) On the basis of this allocation, the Appointing Authority shall issue offer of appointment to the candidate and he shall be deemed to be borne on the cadre strength of that very Division.

(iii) The appointment shall be made against the vacancies as per the merit mentioned in the select list.

(iv) If two or more candidates have scored equal marks, the candidate elder in age shall be given preference in the appointment.

(x) Where the direct recruitment is to be made or completed by the District Judge, he shall complete the process before the 31st October and send the select list along with record to the High Court through Registrar General for approval of the Chief Justice so as to complete the process on or before 30th November.

		(y) Whenever any application is submitted, through online mode or otherwise, the applicant shall have to give an undertaking in the form of declaration in the application that the particulars furnished by him in the application are correct and he shall produce proof thereof at the time of his final selection and if any of the particulars furnished by him in the application form are found to be false, then his candidature and appointment, if made, shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith or at any time and he shall also be liable for criminal prosecution.

(c) Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) shall forward its recommendations to the Appointing Authority at least 10 days before the date of accrual of vacancy (ies) under consideration.

(d) In the event of accrual of vacancy(ies) for unforeseen circumstances during the quarter referred in Rule 9 A (b), the said vacancy(ies) shall be filled from the panel prepared for the said quarter and in case no such panel is there, the said vacancy shall be considered to be available in subsequent quarter and shall be included in the process to be undertaken for subsequent quarter. In case no such process has been scheduled to be initiated for subsequent quarter for non availability of vacancy(ies) in that quarter then process for the said vacancy(ies) shall be initiated within 15 days of accrual of vacancy(ies) and shall be completed within 45 days.

(e) Eligibility for consideration for promotion shall be determined on the last date of initiating of process as referred in Rule 9A(b). In case of vacancy(ies) arising for unforeseen circumstances also, eligibility shall be determined as on the date of initiation of the process wherein such vacancy is considered for filling.

B (a) The District Judge shall identify the vacancies in the cadre, other than Chief Administrative Officer and Private Secretary, which are likely to occur during next calendar year ie. 1st January to 31st December of the succeeding year and schedule the calendar for initiating process for filling these vacancies keeping in view the time schedule provided herein under.

(b) The District Judge shall initiate the process and shall notify the names of employees falling in zone of consideration on or before last date of initiation of process. The calendar for initiating process for filling post(s) shall be as under:-

Sr. No.	Date of accrual of vacancy between	Last date of initiation of process	Date of eligibility
1.	1 st January to 31 st March	21 st November of preceding year	21 st November of preceding year
2.	1 st April to 30 th June	21 st February	21 st February
3.	1 st July to 30 th September	21 st May	21 st May
4.	1 st October to 31 st December	21 st August	21 st August

(c) Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) shall forward its recommendations to Appointing Authority at least 10 days before the date of accrual of 1st vacancy under consideration. The Chief Administrative officer shall be the ex-officio Secretary of the Committee who shall facilitate the process in all manner including ensuring production of entire relevant record before DPC. In absence of Chief Administrative Officer for any reason including vacancy, senior most Superintendent Gr.II in the Division shall act as such.

(d) In the event of accrual of vacancy(ies) for unforeseen circumstances during the quarter referred in Rule 9 B(b), the said vacancy(ies) shall be filled from the panel prepared for the said quarter and in case no such panel is there, the said vacancy shall be considered to be available in subsequent quarter and shall be included in the process to be undertaken for subsequent quarter. In case no such process has been scheduled to be initiated for subsequent quarter for non availability of vacancy(ies) in that quarter then process for the said vacancy(ies) shall be initiated within 15 days of accrual of vacancy(ies) and shall be completed within 45 days.

(e) Eligibility for consideration for promotion shall be determined on the last date of initiating of process as referred in Rule 9B(b). In case of vacancy(ies) arising for unforeseen circumstances also, eligibility shall be determined as on the date of initiation of the process wherein such vacancy is considered for filling.

C(a) The Chief Justice, in his discretion, may permit deviation in the Time Schedule provided in 9A(b) and 9B(b) in case of any difficulty having regard to the peculiar geographical and climatic conditions or other relevant considerations. Permission to additional drive for recruitment/promotion may also be permitted by the Chief Justice if circumstances warrant so. In the event of administrative exigency, for filling post(s), becoming available after date scheduled for initiating process and not taken into consideration therein, Member Secretary/District Judge, as the case may be, with prior approval of the Chief Justice, shall initiate process in addition to scheduled routine process hereinabove.

(b) For promotion to the selection post(s):-
i) The Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) shall determine the merit of those employees falling in zone of consideration for promotion with reference to the prescribed bench mark and accordingly grade the employees as 'fit' or 'unfit' only. The employees who are graded 'fit' by the DPC shall be included and arranged in select panel in order of their inter-se seniority in the feeder grade. The employees who are graded 'unfit' by the DPC shall not be included in the select panel. There shall be no supersession among those who are graded 'fit' by the DPC.

(2) The Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) shall for the purpose of determining the number of employees who should be eligible in the feeder grade(s) restrict the field of choice i.e. twice the number of vacancies plus four, which shall have general application with reference to the number of clear regular vacancies proposed to be filled.

(3) Where, the number of eligible employees in the feeder grade(s) is less than the required number of employees, all eligible employees shall be considered.

(4) The DPC may assess the suitability of eligible employees in the zone of consideration (in the descending order) for inclusion in the panel for promotion up to a number which is considered sufficient against the number of vacancies. With regard to number of employees to be included in the panel, the DPC may prepare extended panel(s) for promotion. In respect of remaining employees, the DPC may put a note in the minutes that the assessment of the remaining employees in the zone of consideration is considered not necessary as sufficient number of employees with prescribed bench-mark have become available.

(5) Where assessment of ACRs is required for appointment to any post, the procedure laid down in Handbook on Personnel Matters, Vol. 1 as amended from time to time by the State Government and adopted by the High Court shall be followed. DPC may evolve criteria for uniform assessment of ACRs to evaluate average of 5 years like an example explained hereinafter. Maximum marks for ACRs of each year may be fixed 5 and the total marks for ACRs of 5 years would be 25. Five marks for each year may be awarded by giving 2,3,4 and 5 marks respectively for "average", "good", "very good" and "outstanding" remarks. Say an employee has been assessed average, Good, very good, outstanding and good for respective year during past 5 years then

		his total marks would be 2+3+4+5+3=17. On dividing with 5, average assessment for 5 years would be 3.4 which is below 'very good' but higher than 'good'. Thus his overall assessment would be good. The criteria must be in consonance with instructions issued by the Govt. of HP in this regard from time to time. (c) For promotion to the post, other than selection post, eligibility for considering for promotion shall be based on seniority subject to rejection of unfit.
Reservation.	10.	The reservation shall be provided at the entry level only against the posts required to be filled by way of direct recruitment as per instructions issued by the State Government vide letters dated 11.6.2019 and 22.06.2020 Annexed as Schedule-V to these Rules and further instructions issued in this behalf from time to time by the State Government. Further provided that 4% reservation to the specially abled persons shall be provided to the following categories of posts at the entry level. A. STENOGRAPHER AND CLERK Reservation shall be provided to the candidate: (a) Suffering from hearing impairment, provided that such impairment is not of 60 decibel or more, after hearing aid/surgical correction; (b) Suffering from locomotor disability; (Note: Person with normal upper limb can also be considered; Provided further that the candidate; (i) Should not have any mental retardation of any degree and major

Person so engaged as a temporary arrangement shall not have a right to continue in service as such after completion of his period of engagement or appointment/promotion of a person in accordance with these rules. Aforesaid temporary arrangement may also be permitted against short term vacancies caused by long leave, short term deputation, training etc., and on accrual of vacancy for unforeseen circumstances for which no panel is available and completion of process is not possible with in short time and continuation of vacancy shall have adverse impact on office working leading to extreme administrative inconvenience, having adverse impact on larger interest of public.
Confirmation.	16.	A person appointed on probation, may be confirmed by the Appointing Authority on satisfactory completion of his initial or extended period of probation.

Seniority.	17.	(1) Persons appointed in a cadre in the Division on the date immediately preceding the date of enforcement of these Rules, shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them.
	(2) The seniority of the direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for appointment and persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection shall be senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selection.
	(3) Subject to provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) of this Rule, permanent members in each cadre shall rank senior to other members in the same cadre.
	(4) Subject to sub rules (1) and (2) above, the relative seniority for promotion to the various posts shall be determined on the basis of length of service in the feeder cadre.
	(5) In promotions, made on the basis of selection, the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order of seniority in the feeder cadre.
	(6) The inter-se seniority between direct recruits and promotees appointed in a calendar year shall be determined on the principle of rota quota. The relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees based on the quota of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively. If adequate number of direct recruits and promotees does not become available in any particular year, rotation of quotas for the purpose of determining seniority would take place only to the extent of the available direct recruits and the promotees.

(7) At the time of fixing interse seniority of direct recruits and promotees on the basis of rotation of quota of vacancies, relevant calendar year, both in case of direct recruits as well as the promotees, for the purpose of rotation and fixation of seniority, shall be the actual year of appointment after declaration of results/selection and completion of pre-appointment formalities as prescribed.

Notwithstanding availability of a post in a particular calendar years, person(s), appointed/promoted against the same post in subsequent calendar year, shall not have any claim of seniority against appointee/promotee of previous calendar year on account of roster point as well as availability of the post(s) for quota of his category in earlier year(s) but he shall get the seniority of the calendar year in which he is appointed on substantive basis as relevant year will be the year in which a candidate of the particular batch of the selected direct recruit or a person of particular batch of the promotee join the post/service.

For the purpose of determining the rotation of quota of vacancies, the left out vacancies of earlier year(s) shall be placed at the bottom of the vacancies available in a subsequent year(s) and direct recruits/ promotees appointed against these additional carried forward vacancies shall be placed enbloc below the last promotee or direct recruit, as the case may be, in the seniority list based on rotation of vacancies for relevant subsequent year.

(8) Tentative seniority list of each cadre shall be prepared and notified on or before 28th February of each year inviting objections within one month thereafter and final seniority list shall be notified on or before 30th April of said year after deciding the objections, if any.

Age.	18.	(i) No person unless otherwise prescribed in these Rules, shall be eligible for direct recruitment to the service if he is below 18 years of age and above 45 years of age as on 1st January of the year of issuance of advertisement notice or sending of requisitions to employment exchanges. However, in the case of candidate(s) belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Other Backward Classes or who is an ex-serviceman, upper age limit shall be the same as may, from time to time be prescribed by the State Government for entry into service for such candidates. (ii) For the post of Court Manager the age shall be in between 25 to 35 years.
------	-----	---

Conditions of Service.	of 19.	Conditions of service of the members of service shall be governed and regulated by the Rules, orders, and instructions framed and issued by the High Court from time to time. In respect of all such matters relating to the conditions of service of the members of the service for which no provision or insufficient provision has been made in these Rules, the Rules and Orders for the time being in force as are applicable to officers/officials holding corresponding posts in the High Court shall regulate the conditions of service of the members of the service subject to such modifications, variations or exceptions, if any, in the said rules and orders, as the High Court may from time to time specify. In absence of any corresponding post in High Court, the Rules and Orders for the time being in force as are applicable to the officers/officials holding corresponding posts in the Government shall regulate the conditions of Service of the members of the service subject to such modifications, variations or exceptions, if any, in the said rules and orders, as the High Court may from time to time specify. Service of contract employee shall be regulated by the policy governing such appointment and by terms of contract. Service of part time workers shall be regulated by the Policy governing such appointment and terms of engagements. In all other cases not covered herein above, service of members of the service except contract appointee, Daily wager and part time worker, shall be governed by FRSR, Conduct and Leave Rules, Pension Policy of the State Government etc., as the case may be, as modified and as applicable from time to time.
-------------------------------	---------------	--

Transfer.	20. (a) The District Judge may transfer a member of the service except Court Manager within his Civil and Sessions Division carrying corresponding scales and grades of pay in the public interest and/or administrative exigency. (b) The Court Manager can be transferred to any civil and Sessions Division by the Chief Justice. (c) On a written request by a willing official(s), inter Division transfer(s) from the Courts in the State, including the High Court may be ordered by the Chief Justice, as per the guidelines laid down in this regard from time to time by the High Court, provided that by such transfer(s), the reservation roster(s) of the division(s) concerned is/are not altered. Such transferee shall be treated as an appointee against the post, reserved for the category in which he has been initially appointed, in the direct recruitment quota in the Division whereto he has been transferred and shall be placed junior most in the cadre to which he has been transferred, in case post in such category is not available but transfer has been made, transferee has to wait for availability of the post in his category for fixation of his seniority, till then transferee shall be considered excess appointee in his category but occupying the post against which he has been transferred for all other purposes. (d) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in Clauses (a) and (b) of this Rule, the Chief Justice, may, owing to exigencies of service or in public interest or in the interest of Administration, in his discretion or on the request of the District Judge concerned, transfer any member of service on the establishment of any District Judiciary to any other 'Division' in Himachal Pradesh, for such period as may be specified in the transfer order. However, during the period of such transfer, the transferred member, shall retain his lien in all respects on his post on the Establishment of his parent Division and his pay shall be drawn from his parent division and such transfer under this Clause, outside the Division shall not affect his seniority and other rights, including the right to be considered for promotion to the higher post in the parent Division, in any manner whatsoever. Likewise, such transferred member shall not be entitled to claim any seniority and promotion etc. over and above the members of respective cadres in the Division whereto he has temporarily been transferred. Resultant vacancy on account of his superannuation, removal, resignation etc. shall accrue in his parent division and such transfer under this clause shall not cause any adverse impact on the right of person(s) of the division whereto transfer is made, for considering them to further promotion in that division.

(e) In case the High Court creates/converts any district cadre to a state cadre, it shall, by general or special order(s), specify the modalities of transfer of the members of the State Cadre.

Part-III

Control and Discipline

Leave	21	The District Judge concerned will be competent to grant leave of any kind to the staff in the Division, and in case of Chief Administrative Officer, Private Secretary and Court Manager, if a leave substitute is to be appointed, then the application for leave shall be forwarded by the District Judge concerned to the Chief Justice for sanction.
Discipline	22.	(a) For the purpose of conduct/discipline/suspension/ removal/ dismissal and any other punishment, all members of the service shall be governed by the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964, Central Civil Services (Classifications, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965 and other Rules and provisions of law, as amended from time to time, as far as practicable, and as adopted by the Government of H.P., and also the Himachal Pradesh Civil Service Rules including the instructions issued thereunder from time to time and adopted by the High Court for the staff of District Judiciary. (b) The Appointing Authority shall be competent to enforce discipline and pass any order including suspension, removal and dismissal of any employee from service. (c) The Disciplinary Authority shall be competent to enforce discipline and pass any order as provided in these Rules. (d) The District Judge/Disciplinary Authority concerned may initiate departmental proceedings against the Chief Administrative Officer, Private Secretary and Court Manager, And Upon them he may impose punishment of (a) censure, (b) recovery from his pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary

		loss caused by him to the Government by negligence or breach of order, (c) withholding of increments of Pay and (d) reduction to a lower stage in the time scale of pay by one stage for a period not exceeding three years, without cumulative effect and not adversely affecting his pension. (e) Whenever a District Judge after considering the material available before him in proceedings referred to in Sub-rule(d), is of the opinion that punishment, other than the punishment as provided under sub rule(d), is to be imposed, he after following prescribed procedure and recording his opinion shall submit the entire record to the High Court and it shall be placed before Judge incharge of the Administrative Business of the Division concerned or judge(s) nominated by the High Court for the purpose, as the case may be, whereupon on the basis of material placed before him/them, and/or after recalling and examining any witness who has already given evidence, and/or calling for and taking any further evidence he/they shall submit the recommendations of District Judge along with his/their speaking comments, to the Appointing Authority i.e. High Court and the final decision in this regard shall be taken by the Appointing Authority.
