Scrutiny and compliance with objections in any pleading e-filing shall only be by online mode only. If interaction is inevitable in such cases virtual counters with video linkage facility shall be used as and when activated.

6. Formatting

6.1 All the original typed text material including notice of motion, memorandum of parties, main petition or appeal, interlocutory application(s), reply, status report, affidavit, documents, will be prepared electronically using the following formatting:

Style:

Paper size: A-4 Top Margin: 1.5" Bottom Margin: 1.5" Left Margin: 1.75" Right Margin: 1.0" Alignment: Justified Font: Times New Roman Font size: 14 Line spacing: 1.5

If any document is typed in a local language in Trial Courts, it must be prepared using xxx Unicode Font 14

The High Court may issue notification / circular / Practice note defining sequence and chronology of documents and manner of pagination, manner of filing amendment for e-filing purposes for District Court and High Court.

6.2 The document should be converted into Optical Character Recognition (OCR) searchable Portable Document Format (PDF) or PDF/A using any PDF converter or in- built PDF conversion plug-in provided in the software. PDF/A is the preferred format.

6.3 A document which is not a text document and has to be enclosed with the Action, should be scanned using an image resolution of 300 DPI (Dots per inch) in OCR searchable mode and saved as a PDF document. The procedure for converting a document into an OCR searchable PDF as mentioned above and as required in clause 8.1 is set out in Appendix – III.

7. Digital Signatures

7.1 The PDF document shall be digitally signed either by the parties and/or by their Advocate. The digital signatures shall be appended on such places on the PDF document as prescribed under the extant rules. If neither the party nor the Advocate who has been engaged possess a digital signature, a print out of the Action shall be physically signed by the party concerned and/or their Advocate in accordance with rules and it shall thereafter be scanned and uploaded.

7.2 A List of recognized Digital Signature Providers and the procedure involved in appending single or multiple signatures is set out in Appendix – IV.

7.3 A litigant in person or advocate who does not possess a digital signature issued by the competent authority can authenticate e-filed documents by e-Sign based on Aadhaar authentication.

8. Dos and Don't's

8.1 The text documents and scanned documents set out in clauses 6.3 and 7.1 should be merged as a single OCR searchable PDF file and should be book-marked as per the Master Index, duly approved by the Registry. The procedure in this behalf is set out in Appendix -V.

8.2 The merged documents should be uploaded at the time of on-line e-filing. Screenshots of the manner of accessing the on-line e-filing portal and for the filing of the main case and documents including written statements, replies, replications, rejoinders, affidavits and evidence in a pending case are set out in Appendix-I.

8.3 Once e-filing is accepted, the filing or registration number shall be notified to the Advocate or litigant in person.

8.4 In so far as evidence in the form of an electronic record, such as audio and/or video files, which are to be filed in the High Court as set out in APPENDIX –VII shall be followed. As and when this facility is made available for District Courts, the procedure to be followed will be notified by the Administrator.

8.5 Special Characters are not allowed while e-filing Memo of Parties and Advocate remarks.

8.6 Document Binary File Name Standards

The following special characters are not allowed in a file name:

- A quotation mark (")

- Braces (left and right) ({ })
- Pipe (|)
- A tilde (~)
- The period (.) character used consecutively in the middle of the file name or at the beginning or end of the file name.

File names should not exceed 45 characters in length, including spaces. Single space must be counted as one character each.

8.7 On-line e-filing shall not be watermarked or encrypted. The e-filed documents shall not contain any virus, malware, spam-ware, trojan horse or the like. All the e-filed documents shall be legible and free of markings, track changes or annotations.

8.8 As far as possible the PDF file may be flattened free of embedded images, videos, GIF, PDF form fields and Java script elements.

9. Payment of Court Fees/Other Charges

Court fee and other charges can be paid either electronically by purchase on the on-line facility provided by the authorised agency or from the Designated Counters provided for the purpose in the High Court and District Courts or from any authorized court fee vendor. The Transaction ID provided upon payment of court fee and other charges is required to be entered in the appropriate field at the time of on-line e-filing.

10. Retention of Originals

10.1 Originals of the documents, certified copies that are scanned and digitally signed by the Registrant(s) at the time of e-filing should be preserved for production or inspection as may be required by a Registrant, Registry or Bench for verification or removal of doubts.

10.2 The registry may make use of virtual counters with video linkage for quick verification any scanned or typed document e-filed cases.

10.3 The signed vakalatnama, signed and notarized/attested affidavit and any other document whose authenticity is likely to be questioned should be preserved, at least, for two years till after the final disposal of the Action. Final disposal shall include disposal of the Action by the superior appellate court.

 $10.4\,$ Notwithstanding anything above, the following documents will have to be preserved permanently :—

(a) A Negotiable Instrument (other than a cheque) as defined in Section 13 of The Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (26 of 1881).

(b) A Power-of-Attorney as defined in section 1A of the Powers-of-Attorney Act, 1882 (7 of 1882).

(c) A Deed as defined in Section 3 of The Indian Trusts Act, 1882 (2 of 1882).

(d) A Will as defined in Clause (h) of Section 2 of The Indian Succession Act, 1925 (39 of 1925) including any other testamentary disposition by whatever name called.

(e) Any contract for the sale or conveyance of immovable property or any interest in such property.

(f) Any other document as may be directed by the Bench.

10.5 The responsibility of producing the originals and proving their genuineness shall be of the party that has electronically filed scanned copies of the document.

11. Access to the Electronic Data of the Action

Free of cost access will be available to authorized person(s) to data e-filed by any of the parties to the specific Action, as is presently being provided in pending Actions. This facility shall be in addition to the procedure of obtaining certified copies.

12. Exemption from e-filing

Exemption from on-line e-filing of the entire pleading or a part of the pleadings and/or documents may be permitted by the Bench upon an application being made for that purpose in the following circumstances :

- (i) where on-line e-filing is for reasons set out in the application not feasible; or
- (ii) where there are concerns about confidentiality and protection of privacy; or $(\mathrm{iii})~$ where the document cannot be scanned or filed electronically because of its size, shape or condition; or

 $(\mathrm{iv})~$ where the on-line e-filing portal is either inaccessible or not available for some reason; and/or

 $(v) \quad \text{for a just and sufficient cause.}$

13. Service of Electronic Documents

In addition to the prescribed mode of service, notices, documents, pleadings that are filed electronically may also be served through the designated e-mail IDs of Registry officials to the e-mail address of the advocates or parties, if available. E-mail IDs of Registry officials will be published on the Court website to enable the recipients to verify the source of the e-mail.

In all cases if the respondent is not registered in CIS and no email ID is disclosed, a party cannot be compelled to accept service in digitised form. In such case, the Registrant shall serve the respondent with physical copies of the pleadings in addition to offering a soft copy.

The registry may send soft copies of petition from the dedicated mail address along with copy of notice/writ to the Court below with verification mechanism to ensure integrity of the dispatched soft copies. If required, soft copies shall be printed at Court effecting service whereupon addressee court shall affix its seal on the notice/writ so received and shall serve copies on the respondents/noticees. Copy of report of service shall be uploaded as reply to the e-mail forwarding notices/writs which, unless required, shall be treated as sufficient proof of service without requirement of physically signed hard copy of report of service.

14. Computation of Time

14.1 Wherever limitation/time limits apply, it will be the responsibility of the party concerned to ensure that the filing is carried out well before the cut-off date and time. The date of e-filing will be taken as that date when the Action is electronically received in the Registry within the prescribed time on any working day. For computing the time at which e-filing is made, Indian Standard Time (IST) will apply.

14.2 E-filing through Designated Counters will be permissible up to 16.00 hours on any court working day. On-line e-filing carried out after working hours on any day, will be treated as the date which follows the actual filing date provided it is a court working day. Actions filed on a day declared as gazetted holiday or on a day when the court is closed, will be regarded as having been filed on the next working day. For the computation of limitation, on-line e-filing shall be subject to the same legal regime as applicable to physical filing, save and except as provided herein above.

14.3 The facility for on-line e-filing through the web portal shall be available during all twentyfour hours of each day, subject to breakdown, server downtime, system maintenance or such other exigencies. Where on-line e-filing is not possible for any of the reasons set out above, parties can either approach the Designated Counters for e-filing during working hours on court working days or take recourse to physical filing. No exemption from limitation shall be permitted on the ground of a failure of the web based on-line e-filing facility.

14.4 Provisions for limitation governing on-line e-filing will be the same as those applicable to physical filing. The period of limitation for such actions will commence from the date when e-filing is made as per the procedure prescribed in these Rules.

15. Procedure for Filing Caveat

All caveats can be filed on-line. The procedure for this purpose is set out in Appendix-VI.

16. Hard Copies of Pleadings and Documents filed Electronically

Advocates, as well as parties, may print hard copies of all pleadings and documents filed electronically for their use in the court or elsewhere. The Registry will wherever required prepare hard copies for official use.

17. These Rules are not in derogation to the provisions of any substantive or procedural law applicable for disposal of proceedings by the courts.

18. Storage and Retrieval of e-Filed Documents and Pleadings

E-filings will be stored on an exclusive server maintained under the control and directions of the Court. Each such filing will be separately labelled and encrypted for facilitate easy identification and retrieval. The security of such filings will be ensured. Access to e-filings would be restricted in the manner provided herein above and as may be notified from time to time. For continuity of operations in case of disaster, natural calamity or breakdown, a mirror image of e-filings available on the servers located in the Court may be maintained at different geographical locations, as decided from time to time by the High Court /e-Committee.

Provided for marking electronic records as exhibits in the course of the trial, the protocol set out in Appendix VIII shall be followed qua the Actions instituted in the High Court. As regards the District Court, as and when the application is made available, the relevant procedure to be followed shall be notified by the Administrator. However, the mere assigning of a unique number to the electronic record will not amount to the authentication or proof of such electronic record. Nothing in these rules shall be construed as dispensing with the proof of the electronic record as required under the law.

19.1 Residuary provisions

19.1 The e-filing made by an Advocate/litigant in person will be rejected if they do not follow the protocol mandated by these Rules or practice directions.

19.2 Subject to such further directions as may be issued, it would not be obligatory on the part of the opposite party to accept pleadings and documents by email. In such an eventuality, hard copies of pleadings and documents will have to be provided to the opposite party. In such circumstances, the plaintiff/ petitioner can be called upon to deposit the charges calculated on the basis of the number of pages per defendant/respondent which are required to be photocopied. This facility will be provided by the Registry on a written request being made by the defendant(s)/respondent(s).

19.3 The Registry will communicate the objections, if any, regarding the cases filed by email/ SMS/web hosting to the concerned Advocate / litigant in person. After the objections are cleared the case will be processed for listing and the Advocate/litigant in person will be informed including by email/SMS.

20. General Caution

Email is not a secure medium of communication. Any communication transmitted by email can be intercepted or read by a third party. An Advocate or litigant in person seeking to transmit confidential or sensitive document/material, shall approach the Registry for requisite assistance/advice.

21. The Chief Justice may issue practice directions as warranted from time to time in respect of the Rules.

• How to e-sign the documents (Authorised signatories)

This facility allows user to assign signatories for a document including the advocates or clients. The service also enables to specify the mode of signing- whether it will be e-signed or OTP verified by the signatory. Only the assigned advocates and clients are able to sign the document. When a client is assigned as signatory by the advocate, he will be able to see the document for e-signing under pleadings menu.

- Click on Authorize Signatories to authorize who can sign the selected document.
- Check the box for those who the user wishes to authorize. Check box is provided in front of their names.
- Select the Method of signing by selecting the radio button for e- sign or OTP. For OTP, enter the mobile number and the OTP which is sent to that number.
- Click on submit button.

APPENDIX -VII

- 1. Any information contained in an electronic record that is sought to be produced in an electronic form and/or intended to be proved as per law shall be filed only through Designated Counters. Any party found dumping irrelevant data / electronic records shall be liable for appropriate action and consequences.
- 2. Where the electronic record is contained in an electronic device it shall, before being produced, be imaged for being produced on to a removable media.
- 3. The electronic record shall be accompanied by a memo [see Form A below]. The details and columns shall be filled up to the extent the information is available. Where the Operating System and software required to read/view/access the electronic record is unavailable, it shall be provided by the party producing the electronic record in a separate storage media.
- 4. Upon the receipt of the electronic record, the hash value thereof shall be verified by the Registry and the electronic record shall be transferred forthwith to the server of the Court following the protocol set out as under:
- Image of the electronic record shall be received only by the authorized personnel.
- Image of the electronic record shall be accompanied by a memo (Form A) by the party tendering it.
- There shall be a dedicated server for receipt and storage of electronic records with clearly specified access rights.
- A standardized procedure, as reviewed and updated from time to time, shall be followed for the verification of the details mentioned in the memo accompanying the electronic record.
- The file structure of the electronic record based on the case number and the unique reference number shall be generated through the software. For example, Case Number Unique Reference Number of the Electronic Record
- An acknowledgement depicting the unique reference number assigned to the electronic record shall be given to the party tendering the electronic record.

- No electronic record in auto-erase mode shall be received. Every electronic record will be preserved in read-only mode.
- A backup shall be created simultaneously of each electronic record after assignment of the unique reference number and the backup shall be stored at a separate location.
- Logs shall be maintained for all actions and the entire process shall be automated.
- 5. Where confidentiality is sought in respect of the whole or any part of the electronic record, directions may be sought from the Court concerned.
- 6. The extant rules (of the Court concerned) regarding retention and production of original documents will apply mutatis mutandis to electronic records produced in terms of these rules.
- 7. Upon verification and transfer, a unique number will be assigned to the electronic record by the Registry. Such a unique number shall be made available to the person tendering such electronic record.
- 8. After a unique number is assigned, the storage media will be returned to the party/counsel concerned.
- 9. A separate register in the prescribed format shall be maintained in every Court or Court complex as the case may be, of the electronic records received, verified and transferred to the server.
- 10. Till such time the electronic record is transferred to the server and returned to the person tendering it, the storage device containing the electronic record should be placed in antistatic and magnetic proof or another such appropriate envelope, to be provided by the party. Such envelope will be appropriately labelled, by the party with the details of the case and the electronic record in the manner indicated below:
- The storage media containing the electronic record will be tendered in an appropriate envelope or cover.
- The envelope or cover should be free of dust, grease and chemical pollutants and kept in a sterile environment
- As far as possible:
- o The appropriate size of the envelope would be 6" x 6" for pen drives and memory cards; 7" x 10" for CD, DVD and 8" x 10" for hard disks.
- o Electronic record should always be packed in anti-static packing and magnetic proof. Only paper or cardboard should be used with a thin भाग चार-क-७९-८अ water/dustproof plastic layer on the outside of the envelope.

o A master envelope may be used to hold multiple disks (packed in separate hard plastic cases) if necessary.

• The Label affixed thereupon, should necessarily include the case details, type, make and Sr. no. of the electronic storage media along with the name of the party or the person tendering it.

Such envelope should be kept in a sterile environment. After the electronic record is transferred as per the protocol hereinabove, the envelope will be returned along with the storage media. In any event, the storage media and the envelope will not be retained beyond one week, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

11. The Registry shall maintain logs documenting all processes and protocols for electronic records created in the normal course of business.

12. The court concerned will display on the website the list of the operating systems and the softwares available in the court system. Guidance notes will be uploaded on the websites of the High Court and District Courts.

13. Only authorized personnel shall have access to electronic records.

14. These rules/guidelines do not deal with the destruction of electronic records or devices which have not been collected under clause 11. These will be governed by the rules framed by the Court concerned for that purpose, as the case may be.

15. These rules will apply also to the production of electronic records during the cross-examination of a witness in the course of the trial.
