State through the Inspector of Police,

Veerapandi P. S. in

Cr.No.118/2024

U/s.294(b), 324, 506 (ii) of IPC

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming up on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru. K.Rajesh, Learned Counsel for the petitioner and the Learned Public Prosecutor for the State and this Court passed the following:

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioner/accused U/s.438 of Code of Criminal Procedure seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The Nitty-Gritty of the prosecution case is as follows:

On 06.04.2024 at about 10.00 p.m., when the complainant dismantled audio and video set erected in the temple festival, the petitioner assaulted him with bear bottle and abused him with filthy language. Further he intimidated him with dire consequences. Therefore the case registered against them U/s.294(b), 324 and 506 (ii) of IPC.

3. Heard both sides.

4. The points for determination is the can anticipatory bail be granted to the petitioner?

Answer :

5. The FIR and reply given by police are perused. the FIR transpires that on 06.04.2024 at about 3.00 p.m., the petitioner and his friends were dancing along with others to the music played in the loud speaker during temple festival. The public of the locality intercepted the dispute and wind up the video and audio set being played by the complainant. Following which at about 10.00 a.m., the petitioner assaulted the complainant with bear bottle and intimidated him with dire consequences. The prosecution stated that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital. Taking into account the fact that the incident ensued on temple festival and circumstances of the case, I inclined to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

6. Therefore it is ordered that in the event of his arrest by the Respondent or on his surrender before the Learned Judicial Magistrate at Theni, within 15 days from the date of this order, he shall be released on anticipatory bail on his executing a bond for sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum. Following conditions are imposed on him :-

i) He shall appear before the SHO Veerapandi Police Station daily at 10.00 a.m., and 5.00 p.m., for the period of 25 days from the date of release on bail.

ii) The petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witnesses either during the investigation or trial.

iii) The petitioner shall not abscond either during the investigation or trial.

7. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the Learned Magistrate / Trial court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji – Vs- State of Kerala ( 2005) AIR SCW 5560).

..3..

8. If the petitioner/accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.

Pronounced by me in open Court on this the 11th day of May 2024.
