Cr.No.123/2024

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming up on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru. S. Subramanian, Learned Counsel for the petitioners and the Learned Public Prosecutor for the State and this Court passed the following:

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioners/accused U/s.438 of Code of Criminal Procedure seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The Nitty-Gritty of the prosecution case is as follows :-

On 12.03.2024 at 11.00 a.m., when the complainant came to her matrimonial home, the petitioners who are her relatives assaulted and abused her with filthy language further they intimidated her with dire consequences. Therefore the case registered against the petitioners U/s.294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC.

3. Heard both sides.

4. The points for determination is that can the petitioners be released on anticipatory bail ?

Answer :

5. The FIR and reply given by the Police are perused. The petitioner No.1 is non other than husband of the complainant. Already a case was filed before the Court and the same was withdrawn by the complainant on compromise. Based on the compromise, on 12.03.2024 at 11.00 a.m., the complainant went to her matrimonial home for living with her husband, the petitioner No.1 and other petitioners assaulted the complainant and abused her further they intimidated her with dire consequences. All these facts would go to show that prima facie the petitioners committed offence U/s.294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC against the complainant. Besides that previously a case was pending against the petitioners before the Court. So considered all these facts together, I am not inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail.

In result, this bail petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in open Court on this the 11th day of May 2024.
