State through the Inspector of Police,

Allinagaram P. S. in

Cr.No.40/2024

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming up on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Tmt. U. Vidhya, Learned Counsel for the petitioner and the Learned Public Prosecutor for the State and this Court passed the following:

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioner/accused U/s.438 of Code of Criminal Procedure seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The Nitty-Gritty of the prosecution case is as follows :-

On 05.02.2024 at 6.40 p.m., the petitioner and other accused assaulted the complainant and her relative and abused them. Besides that the petitioner and other accused pulled away the wall upon the complainant and there by caused injury on the complainant. Therefore the case registered against the petitioner U/s.147, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) of IPC and 4 of TNPHW Act.

3. Heard both sides.

4. The points for determination is that can the petitioner be released on anticipatory bail ?

Answer :

5. The FIR and reply given by the Police are perused. The FIR transpires that the petitioner along with six co accused pulled the wall over the complainant and his sister and there by caused injury on them. Further they abused and intimidated them with dire consequences. So the FIR prima facie shows that the petitioner committed serious offence against the complainant and his sister. Having considered the serious nature of the offence, I am not inclined to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

In result, this bail petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in open Court on this the 11th day of May 2024.
