Answer :

The FIR and reply given by the Police are perused. The FIR would show that the petitioner and two co accused cheated the complainant and others to the tune of Rs.94,31,000/- under the guise of getting Government Job to them. Also they too fabricated Government Appointment Order. The prosecution submitted that the petitioner and others cheated more than 18 persons and that the accused No.1 is still at large. If she is released on bail, she would abscond and hamper the investigation. As co accused are at large, further investigation is absolutely necessary to bring home the offenders. Also the magnitude of the crime is huge. So considering the serious nature of the offence, I am not inclined to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

In result, this anticipatory bail petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in open Court on this the 13th day of May 2024.
