-Versus-

State through the Inspector of Police,

Devathanapatty P.S. in

Cr.No.126/2024

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming up on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru.M.Lenin, Learned Counsel for the petitioner and the Learned Public Prosecutor for the State and this Court passed the following:

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioner/accused U/s.438 of Code of Criminal Procedure seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The Nitty-Gritty of the prosecution case is as follows:

On 29.03.2024 at 1.00 p.m., the petitioner lurking trespassed into the complainant's house and set fire to the valuable kept in the bureau. Therefore case registered against the petitioner U/s 452 and 436 of IPC.

3. Heard both sides.

4. The points for determination is that can anticipatory bail be granted to the petitioner?

Answer :

5. The FIR and reply given by the police are perused. As revealed from FIR, the petitioner lurking trespassed into the house of complainant and set fire to valuables kept in the bureau. The prosecution submitted that the investigation is still pending and if released on bail, the petitioner would abscond. Having considered the serious nature of crime and that the investigation is still pending, I am not inclined to release the petitioner on bail.

In fine, the petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in open Court on this the 14th day of May 2024.
