Cr.No.483/2023

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming up on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Tmt.K.Rajesh, Learned Counsel for the petitioner and the Learned Public Prosecutor for the State and this Court passed the following:

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioner/accused U/s.438 of Code of Criminal Procedure seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The Nitty-Gritty of the prosecution case is as follows:

On 16.12.2023 at 7.15 p.m. the petitioner intimidated the complainant by showing weapon and abused him with filthy language. Therefore the case registered against the petitioner U/s.447, 294(b) and 506 (ii) of IPC.

3. Heard both sides.

4. The points for determination is that can anticipatory bail be granted to the petitioner?

Answer :

5. As revealed from the FIR, the petitioner intimidated the complainant and abused him with filthy language. Having considered the nature of offences and circumstances of the case, I inclined to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

6. Therefore it is ordered that in the event of his arrest by the Respondent or on his surrender before the Learned Judicial Magistrate at Aundipatty, within 15 days from the date of this order, he shall be released on anticipatory bail on his executing a bond for sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum. Following conditions are imposed on the petitioner :-

i) The petitioner shall appear before the SHO Aundipatty Police Station daily at 10.00 a.m., for the period of 15 days from the date of release on bail.

ii) The petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witnesses either during the investigation or trial.

iii) The petitioner shall not abscond either during the investigation or trial.

7. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the Learned Magistrate / Trial court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji – Vs- State of Kerala (2005) AIR SCW 5560).

..3..

8. If the petitioner/accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.

Pronounced by me in open Court on this the 21st day of May 2024.
