Cr.No.434/2023

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming up on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru.M.Jaaklalkhan, Learned Counsel for the petitioners and the Learned Public Prosecutor for the State and this Court passed the following:

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioners/accused U/s.438 of Code of Criminal Procedure seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The Nitty-Gritty of the prosecution case is as follows:

On 09.10.2023 during night the accused no.1 alleged to have murdered the deceased, Dhanalakshmi. Following which the petitioners disposed the body of the deceased in the graveyard. Therefore the case registered against the petitioners U/s.143, 201, 302, 376, 506(i) and 511 of IPC.

3. Heard both sides.

4. The points for determination is that can the petitioners be released on anticipatory bail?

Answer :

5. The FIR and material records are perused. As per the FIR, the accused no.1 alleged to have murdered the deceased, Dhanalakshmi. The petitioners who are relatives to the accused no.1, had disposed the dead body soon after the occurrence without informing the police. The prosecution submitted that the petitioners would threaten the prosecution witnesses, also the petitioners would abscond if released on bail. As narrated above, there are prima facie grounds exist to show that the petitioners involved in disposing the body soon after occurrence. Further the investigation is underway. Having considered the above facts and serious nature of the offence, I am not inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail.

In fine, the Anticipatory bail petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in open Court on this the 28th day of May 2024.
