Cr.No.01/2024

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming up on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru. V.C.Chinnapandi, Learned Counsel for the petitioners and of Thiru.M.Udhayasuryan, Learned Counsel for the Intervener and the Learned Public Prosecutor for the State and this Court passed the following:

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioners/accused U/s.438 of Code of Criminal Procedure seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The Nitty-Gritty of the prosecution case is as follows:

The petitioners and co accused cheated the complainant having sold away property more than what extent they have. On questioning the same, the petitioners abused and intimidated the complainant with dire consequences. Therefore case registered against them U/s.120(B), 406, 420, 463, 464, 465, 468, 294(b) and 506(ii) of IPC.

3. Heard both sides as well as Intervener.

4. The points for determination is that can the petitioners be released on anticipatory bail ?

Answer :

The FIR and reply given by the Police are perused. The FIR would show that the petitioners and the co-accused cheated the complainant by selling away property more than what extent they have. The amount cheated is at Rs.12 lakhs. Besides that, the petitioners and co accused intimidated and abused the complainant. The prosecution strongly objected that if released on bail, the petitioners would abscond and tamper with prosecution evidence. Further the investigation is underway. Therefore having considered the serious nature of crime and further investigation is necessary as well as no change of circumstances made out after dismissing the earlier bail petition, I am not inclined to release the petitioner on bail.

In result, this anticipatory bail petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in open Court on this the 29th day of May 2024.
