::DISTRICT LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITY ::
::EAST JAINTIA HILLS DISTRICT :: KHLIEHRIAT::

SEEKING JUSTICE? ACCESS FREE LEGAL AID TODAY

You can access free legal aid through:

Legal Aid Clinics: Act as the first point of contact for grassroots legal assistance

- Visit the nearest Legal Aid clinic in your area
- Meet Para Legal Volunteer (PLV) for guidance
- Explain your issue (self/parent/guardian/ caregiver)
- Your case will be recorded and forwarded for legal assistance.

LSUC (Legal Services Unit for Children)

- Approach for cases involving children (0-18 years)
- Assistance in matter of child protection, education, abuse, neglect and rehabilitation
- Can be accessed through school, Child Care Institutions or DLSA.

LSUM (Legal Services to Person with Mental Illness and Person with Intellectual Disabilities)

- For persons facing mental health or intellectual disability-related issue
- Assistance in guardianship, treatment rights, abuse and welfare benefits
- Caregiver/family members can apply on behalf of the person.

Who is eligible for free legal services?

Under section 12 of the Legal Services Authorities Act, you are eligible if you are:

- A Women or a Child
- A member of SC/ST.
- An individual Workman
- A victim of Mass Disaster, Violence, Flood or Earthquake.
- A person with Disability.
- A person in Custody/Protective Home.
- An individual with an annual income below the prescribed state limit

How to Apply?

1. Visit: walk into your nearest District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) or Legal Aid clinic
2. Online: Visit the National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) portal or your respective State Legal Services Authority website.
3. Documentation: Bring a copy of your ID and any document related to your case.
4. Helpline: Dial 15100 (National Legal Aid Helpline Number- Free Number) for immediate guidance

Contact DLSA/ Legal Aid Clinics/ Para Legal Volunteers for assistance

All Services are FREE, confidential and easily accessible