

SUPREME COURT OF INDIA

10.08.2026

NOTICE

The Supreme Court of India is organising "SAMADHAN SAMAROH - Supreme Court Action for Mediated Adjudication and Disputes Harmonization Across Nation", which commenced on 21st April, 2026 and will culminate in the holding of a Special Lok Adalat on 21st, 22nd and 23rd August, 2026. The categories of matters identified for consideration in the Special Lok Adalat include Banking, Civil Law, Compensation and MACT Matters, Consumer and RERA Disputes, Matters relating to Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, Family Laws, Labour and Industrial Laws, Land Acquisition Matters, Property Tax Matters, Rent Disputes and Eviction Matters, Service Laws, Transfer Petitions, Direct Taxation and Indirect Taxation.

All Advocates-on-Record, litigants and other stakeholders desirous of having their matters settled through the Special Lok Adalat are further requested to furnish the complete particulars of such matters either to the One Stop Centre, Special Lok Adalat (Room No. 806 & 808, B-Block, Administrative Building Complex, Supreme Court of India) or may submit the relevant details of the case by filling out the prescribed Google Form (circulated previously) at: <https://forms.gle/jqxefqF4BCWzukoP6> so that such matters may also be considered for being taken up and disposed of in the Special Lok Adalat.

Sd/-

Surabhi Prashar
Director-cum-Additional Registrar (J)
Centre for Research & Planning
Supreme Court of India

Copy to:

All concerned