...Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated 21.05.2024 U/s.438 Cr.P.C. to grant anticipatory bail.

This petition is coming on this day for hearing before me, in the presence of Thiru.S.J.Sheik Ibrahim, M.A., B.L., the learned Counsel for the petitioners and Thiru.B.Karthikeyan, B.A., B.L., the learned Public Prosecutor for the State and upon hearing both sides arguments, this Court passed the following:

ORDER

The petitioners are the accused in Cr.No.83/2024 of Chathirakudi P.S. The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable U/s.294(b), 323, 506(i) IPC and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, have filed this petition seeking to release them on anticipatory bail.

2. The prosecution case is that, there is some wordy quarrel between the defacto complainant and the petitioners. On 12.05.2024 at about 6.00 p.m. when the defacto complainant's husband and his father were going to the temple, the petitioners were drinking the wine nearby the temple. At that time the defacto complainant's husband questioned about the act of petitioners. Following which, on the same day at about 7.00 p.m. when the defacto complainant, her husband and her sister were sitting outside of the home, the petitioners came there and abused them in filthy language and A2 assaulted the defacto complainant with hand on her cheek and A1 assaulted the defacto complainant's sister who is pregnant with hand on her cheek and pushed down and also threatened them with dire consequences. Hence the charge.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners has contended that, the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case and they are in no way connected with the case. The injured has discharged from the hospital. Material part of the witnesses has already been examined. Earlier anticipatory bail application was dismissed by this Court in CrI.M.P.No.136/2024 dated 16.05.2024. No previous case is pending against the petitioners. Hence this petition is to be allowed.

4. The learned Public Prosecutor has contended that, totally 3 accused involved in this case. The petitioners are arrayed as A1 to A3. On the date of occurrence, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and her family members in filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant and her sister with hands and caused injuries. Injured discharged from the hospital on 20.05.2023. Earlier anticipatory bail petition was dismissed by this Court in CrI.M.P.No.136/2024 dated 16.05.2024. Material part of the witnesses has already been examined. No previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5. After taking into consideration of both sides learned Counsels arguments and on perusal of records, it is found that, the petitioners are arrayed as A1 to A3. On the date of occurrence, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and her family members in filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant and her sister with hands and caused injuries. Injured discharged from the hospital. Earlier anticipatory bail petition was dismissed by this Court. Material part of the witnesses has already been examined. No previous case is pending against the petitioners. In these circumstances, if the petitioners are released on anticipatory bail, no prejudice will cause to the prosecution side. Nature and circumstances are considered by this Court and come to the conclusion that the petitioners are entitled to get anticipatory bail with the following conditions:-

i) that in the event of arrest of the petitioners by the respondent police or on their surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Paramakudi within 15 days from the date of this order and on such arrest or surrender the petitioners are ordered to be enlarged on anticipatory bail on their execution of a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate concerned; If the petitioners/accused are not surrendered within 15 days from the date of this order, this anticipatory bail order stands cancelled automatically;

ii) that the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or Bank pass book to ensure their identity;

iii) that the petitioners shall report before the respondent Police Station daily twice at 10.30 a.m and 5.00 p.m. until further orders and on further condition that they shall make available themselves for interrogation as and when required by the investigation Officer;

iv) that the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witnesses either during investigation or trial;

v) that the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

vi) that on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji-vs- State of Kerala(2005) AIR SCW 5560;

...Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated: 21.05.2024 U/s.439 Cr.P.C. to grant bail.

This petition is coming on this day for hearing before me, in the presence of Thiru.V.Sunil Malhotra, B.Com., B.L., the learned Counsel for the petitioner and of Thiru.B.Karthikeyan, B.A., B.L., the learned Public Prosecutor for the State and upon hearing both sides arguments, this Court passed the following:

ORDER

The petitioner/accused who was arrested on 07.05.2024 in CrI.No.197/2024 on the file of the respondent police and he is facing the charges punishable U/s. 25(1A) of Arms Act , has filed this petition for seeking bail.

2. The prosecution case is that, based on information the respondent police went to the occurrence place on 07.05.2024 at about 10.00 a.m and found that the petitioner and another have illegally possessed sickle and sword and threatened the public due to complaint given against them in sand theft. One of the accused escaped from the occurrence place. A1 was red handed by the police. The weapons and 2 cell phones were seized from A1. Hence the charge.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has contended that, the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he is in no way connected with the offence. The petitioner was arrested on 07.05.2024 and he is in judicial custody for the past 10 days. It is a put up case. The petitioner has involved in Cr.No.123/2024 on the file of the respondent police, he was released on anticipatory bail before the Principal Sessions Court in CrI.M.P.No.1656/2024 on 24.04.2024. After getting the order the respondent police was arrested in this case. Further he has contended that the petitioner's marriage was fixed on 13.05.2024. The respondent police was arrested the petitioner on 07.05.2024. After arresting the petitioner, he could not file the bail application in time. Then his marriage was postponed on 19.05.2024. Earlier printed marriage invitation is produced before this Court. Material part of the witnesses have already been examined. Earlier bail application was dismissed by this Court in CrI.M.P.No.92/2024 on 16.05.2023. 3 previous case is pending against the petitioner. If the petitioner is enlarged on bail, he will not tamper the witnesses. Hence this petition is to be allowed.

4. The learned Public Prosecutor has contended that, totally 2 accused have involved in this case. The petitioner is arrayed as A1. A2 is brother of A1 and he is still absconding. On the date of occurrence, the petitioner and A2 have illegally possessed sickle and sword and threatened the public due to complaint given against them in sand theft. The petitioner was arrested on 07.05.2024 and he is in judicial custody. The weapons and 2 cell phones were seized from the petitioner. 3 previous cases are pending against the petitioners. Material part of the witnesses have already been examined. Further he has contended that the petitioner has already involved same type of offence in Cr.No.123/2024 and he was released on anticipatory bail on 24.04.2024. Subsequently he was involved in another one case of Arms Act on 07.05.2024. The petitioner is continuously committing the offences. Earlier application was dismissed by this Court on 16.05.2024. If the petitioner is released on bail, it will possible to commit similar type of offence again. Hence this petition is to be dismissed.

5. After taking into consideration of both sides learned Counsels arguments and on perusal of records, it is found that on the date of occurrence , the petitioner and A1 threatened the public due to complaint given to the police against in sand theft. Properties involved in this case have already been secured by the respondent police. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 07.05.2024 in this case. The learned Counsel for the petitioner contention is that the petitioner's marriage was arranged, in the meantime the respondent police has foisted a case against the petitioner and he was arrested on 07.05.2024, due to which his marriage was postponed and the respondent police has falsely registered another one Arms act due to some previous cases against him. The learned Public Prosecutor has objected to release the petitioner on bail on the ground that the petitioner has subsequently involved in offence U/s.25(1A) Arms Act and he is facing 3 previous cases. Material part of the witnesses has already been examined. Considering the above said aspects and period of incarceration, bad antecedents are considered by this Court and come to the conclusion that the petitioner is entitled to get bail with the following conditions;

i) that the petitioner is ordered to be enlarged on bail on his executing of bond for Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Ramanathapuram;

ii) that the petitioner shall produce undertaking affidavit that he shall not involve in similar type of offence in future at the time of furnishing sureties;

iii) that the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or Bank pass book to ensure their identity;

iv) that the petitioners shall report and sign before the learned District Munsif-cum-Judicial Magistrate, Kamuthi daily twice at 10.30 a.m and 5.00 p.m until further orders and on further condition that they shall make available himself or interrogation as and when required by the investigation Officer;

v) that the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

vi) that the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

vii) that on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji-vs-State of Kerala(2005) AIR SCW 5560; viii) If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered U/s.229 A IPC.

4. The learned Public Prosecutor has reiterated the prosecution version. Further he has contended that there are totally 3 accused involved in this case. The petitioner is arrayed as A3. Earlier bail application of co-accused A1 dismissed by the Hon'ble High Court in CrI.No.6985/2024 on 13.05.2024 on the ground that the victim was hospitalized. After that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital. No previous case is pending against the petitioner. Material part of the witnesses has already been examined.

5. After taking into consideration of both sides learned Counsels arguments and on perusal of records, it is found that, totally 3 accused involved in this case. The petitioner is arrayed as A3. The occurrence was happened between both group villegers due to previous motive. The injured has already been discharged from the hospital. Material part of the witnesses has already been examined.No previous case is pending against the petitioner. In these circumstances, if the petitioner is released on anticipatory bail, no prejudice will cause to the prosecution side. Nature and circumstances are considered by this Court and come to the conclusion that the petitioner is entitled to get anticipatory bail with the following conditions:-

i) that in the event of arrest of the petitioner by the respondent police or on his surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Ramanathapuram within 15 days from the date of this order and on such arrest or surrender the petitioner is ordered to be enlarged on anticipatory bail on his execution of a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate concerned; If the petitioner/accused is not surrendered within 15 days from the date of this order, this anticipatory bail order stands cancelled automatically;

ii) that the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or Bank pass book to ensure their identity;

iii) that the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police Station daily at 10.30 a.m and 5.00 p.m., until further orders and on further condition that he shall make available himself for interrogation as and when required by the investigation Officer;

iv) that the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

On the date of occurrence, the petitioner and 3 others have damaged front glass portion of the defacto complainant's car and other accused damaged the house windows. Damage value Rs.1,00,000/-. No one was injured. Material part of the witnesses has already been examined. Earlier bail application was dismissed by the Principal District Court in CrI.M.P.No.1758/2024 dated 26.04.2024. One previous case is pending against the petitioner. In these circumstances, if the petitioner is released on anticipatory bail, prejudice will cause to the prosecution. Hence this petition is to be dismissed.

5. After taking into consideration of both sides learned Counsels arguments and on perusal of records, it is found that, the petitioner is arrayed as A1. The defacto complainant is brother of the petitioner. At the time of occurrence the petitioner and 3 others damaged the front portion of the car and also damaged window glasses by using sword. The damage value is Rs.1,00,000/-. No one was injured. Material part of the witnesses has already been examined. One previous case is pending against the petitioner. In these circumstances, if the petitioner is released on anticipatory bail, no prejudice will cause to the prosecution side. Nature and circumstances are considered by this Court and come to the conclusion that the petitioner is entitled to get anticipatory bail with the following conditions:-

i) that in the event of arrest of the petitioner by the respondent police or on his surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Ramanathapuram within 15 days from the date of this order and on such arrest or surrender the petitioner is ordered to be enlarged on anticipatory bail on his execution of a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate concerned; If the petitioner/accused is not surrendered within 15 days from the date of this order, this anticipatory bail order stands cancelled automatically;

ii) Before execution of bond, the petitioner shall deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) to the Credit of Crime No.168/2024 before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Ramanathapuram without prejudice to his defence before the Judicial Magistrate concerned;

iii) that the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or Bank pass book to ensure their identity;

iv) that the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police Station

daily twice at 10.30 a.m and 5.00 p.m. until further orders on further condition that he shall make available himself for interrogation as and when required by the investigation Officer;

v) that the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

vi) that the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

vii) that on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji-vs- State of Kerala(2005) AIR SCW 5560);

ix) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered U/s.229 A IPC.
