(m) Ensuring expeditious recording of deposition during trial on day to day basis without adjournments;

(n) Awarding time to time periodical financial aids/grants to the witness from Witness Protection Fund for the purpose of re-location, sustenance or starting a new vocation/profession, as may be considered necessary;

(o) Any other form of protection measures considered necessary.

8. Monitoring and Review: Once the protection order is passed, the Competent Authority would monitor its implementation and can review the same in terms of follow-up reports received in the matter. However, the Competent Authority shall review the Witness Protection Order on a quarterly basis based on the monthly follow-up report submitted by the Witness Protection Cell.

PART - III

9. Protection of Identity:

During the course of investigation or trial of any offence, an application for seeking identity protection can be filed in the prescribed form (Annexure) before the Competent Authority through its Member Secretary.

Upon receipt of the application, the Member Secretary of the Competent Authority shall call for the Threat Analysis Report. The Competent Authority shall examine the witness or his family members or any other person it deems fit to ascertain whether there is a necessity to pass an identity protection order.

During the course of hearing of the application, the identity of the witness shall not be revealed to any other person, which is likely to lead to the witness identification. The Competent Authority can thereafter, dispose of the application as per material available on record.

Once, an order for protection of identity of witness is passed by the Competent Authority, it shall be the responsibility of Witness Protection Cell to ensure that identity of such witness, his or her family members including\name/parentage/occupation /address/digital footprints are fully protected.

As long as identity of any witness is protected under an order of the Competent Authority, the Witness Protection Cell shall provide details of persons who can be contacted by the witness in case of emergency.

In line with the aforesaid provisions contained in the scheme, vulnerable witnesses may testify in special courts with physical barriers or through Video conferencing facilities to minimize interaction with the accused.

PART - IV

10. Change of Identity:

In appropriate cases, where there is a request from the witness for change of identity and based on the Threat Analysis Report, a decision can be taken for conferring a new identity to the witness by the Competent Authority.

Conferring new identities includes new name/profession/parentage and providing supporting documents acceptable by the Government Agencies. The new identities should not deprive the witness from existing educational/professional/property rights.

PART - V

11. Relocation of Witness:

In appropriate cases, where there is a request from the witness for relocation and based on the Threat Analysis Report, a decision can be taken for relocation of the witness by the Competent Authority.

THE POWER TO REQUIRE ATTENDANCE.

[G.O.Ms.No. 88, Home (Courts.B), 9th October, 2025.]

Whereas, section 302 of the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (Central Act No.46 of 2023) (hereinafter referred as BNSS) empowers a Criminal Court to make an order requiring the Officer in charge of the prison to produce a person before the Court for answering to a charge or for the purpose of a proceeding or for giving evidence in the course of an inquiry, trial or proceeding under the Sanhita;

And whereas, sub-section (1) of section 303 of the Sanhita empowers the State Government to direct by a general or special order, that any person or class of persons, shall not be removed from the prison, in which he or they may be confined or detained, and no order under section 302, whether before or after the order of the State Government, shall have effect in respect of such person or class of persons;

And whereas there is a chance of prisoners,-

- escaping from the police custody with the help of their accomplices
- attacking police personnel during their transportation from prison to court and vice versa
- and their sympathizers in using fire arms in public places more so, in cases the prisoners are accused of heinous offences such as organized crimes, terrorist acts, murder, attempt to murder, robbery, dacoity, offences against the State among others;

And now, therefore, in view of the reasons recorded above and in exercise of powers conferred under sub-section (1) of section 303 of the Sanhita, the Government of Telangana is pleased to make the following order:

1. Prisoners to whom section 302 of BNSS does not apply:

The persons accused/convicted of offences specified in the Schedule appended to this Notification shall not be removed from the prison in which they are confined or detained, and no order made under section 302 of the Sanhita, whether before or after this order, shall have effect in respect of these persons.

2. Identification of other person to whom section 302 BNSS does not apply

a) The Inspector General of Prisons shall, in consultation with the Director General of Police, Telangana, identify the individuals or classes of persons whose removal from prison for Court attendance may pose a threat to public order or is not in the public interest.

b) Assessment Criteria:
- The assessment shall consider:
  - The severity and nature of the offence committed.
  - The potential risk to public safety and order.
  - Any intelligence inputs regarding threats posed by the prisoner's movement.

c) Issuance of Exclusion Orders:
- Upon identification, the Home Department shall issue a formal order excluding the specified individual(s) from the operation of section 302, thereby preventing their removal from prison for Court proceedings.

3. Communication to Relevant Authorities:

- Copies of the exclusion order shall be sent to
  - The concerned Judicial Magistrate or Court.
  - The Superintendent of the respective prison.
  - The Director General of Police, Telangana.
  - The Director of Prosecution.

4. Production through Audio-Video

In all cases, where a person is exempted from the application of section 302 of the Sanhita, the concerned Superintendent of Prison shall ensure that such person is produced before the Court through video conferencing, in compliance with the procedural requirements outlined under section 303(2)(a) to (c), while safeguarding public order and interest. Such production via video conferencing shall be deemed as compliance with the requirements of section 302.

5. Power to modify the Schedule

The State Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, add to, delete from, or modify the list of offences mentioned, class of persons, or any specific person to the Schedule appended hereto, as may be required, having regard to the factors specified under section 303(2)(a) to(c) of the Sanhita.
