The Member Secretary
All State Legal Services Authorities

Subject: Dissemination of awareness material regarding the National Lok Adalat scheduled to be held on 12.09.2026 through websites and digital platforms of Ministries/ Departments and other stakeholders

Sir/Madam, Instructions to circulate to all Chairmen of DLSA. 8/9/26

NALSA, in furtherance of its mandate under the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, undertakes various initiatives for promoting access to justice and creating public awareness regarding legal services and mechanisms for dispute settlement. Lok Adalats constitute an important component of this framework, providing an accessible, expeditious and cost-effective mechanism for amicable settlement of disputes.

The next National Lok Adalat is scheduled to be held on 12.09.2026 throughout the country, except in Karnataka and Delhi, where it is scheduled to be held on 19.09.2026 and 10.10.2026, respectively. Citizen-friendly posters have accordingly been prepared, containing relevant information on the National Lok Adalat, its benefits, and the manner in which the facility may be availed through the Legal Services Authorities, along with messages of the Hon'ble Patron-in-Chief, NALSA and the Hon'ble Executive Chairman, NALSA. The posters are enclosed as Annexure A.

Allow as directed 8/9.

Wider dissemination of this material through the official websites and digital platforms of State Government Ministries/Departments and other organisations with substantial public interface would considerably augment the reach of awareness regarding the National Lok Adalats.

In 988/26 8/9/26

Your goodself is accordingly requested to take up the matter with the concerned Ministries/ Departments of the respective State Governments and other stakeholders in your States/UTs, with a request to display/share the posters at Annexure A on their respective official websites, social media handles and other digital platforms.

Stakeholders to be approached in this regard may include banks, non-banking financial companies (NBFCs), insurance companies, electricity distribution companies, water supply authorities, telecom service providers, public sector undertakings, transport authorities, municipal/local authorities and other organisations having substantial public interface, particularly those dealing with matters amenable to settlement through Lok Adalats.

Your goodself is also requested to share with NALSA the links/details of the websites and digital platforms on which the posters have been displayed/shared, after such dissemination.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Message from

the Patron-in-Chief, NALSA

"Access to justice is not merely a principle but a lived reality that must reach every doorstep. The National Lok Adalat offers citizens a structured, time-bound and cost-effective mechanism to resolve pending disputes through mutual consent and settlement. I encourage all to actively participate in this Lok Adalat and experience a faster, simpler and more harmonious path to resolution, reducing the burden on courts while restoring peace between parties."

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Surya Kant,
Chief Justice of India and Patron-in-Chief, NALSA

National Lok Adalat

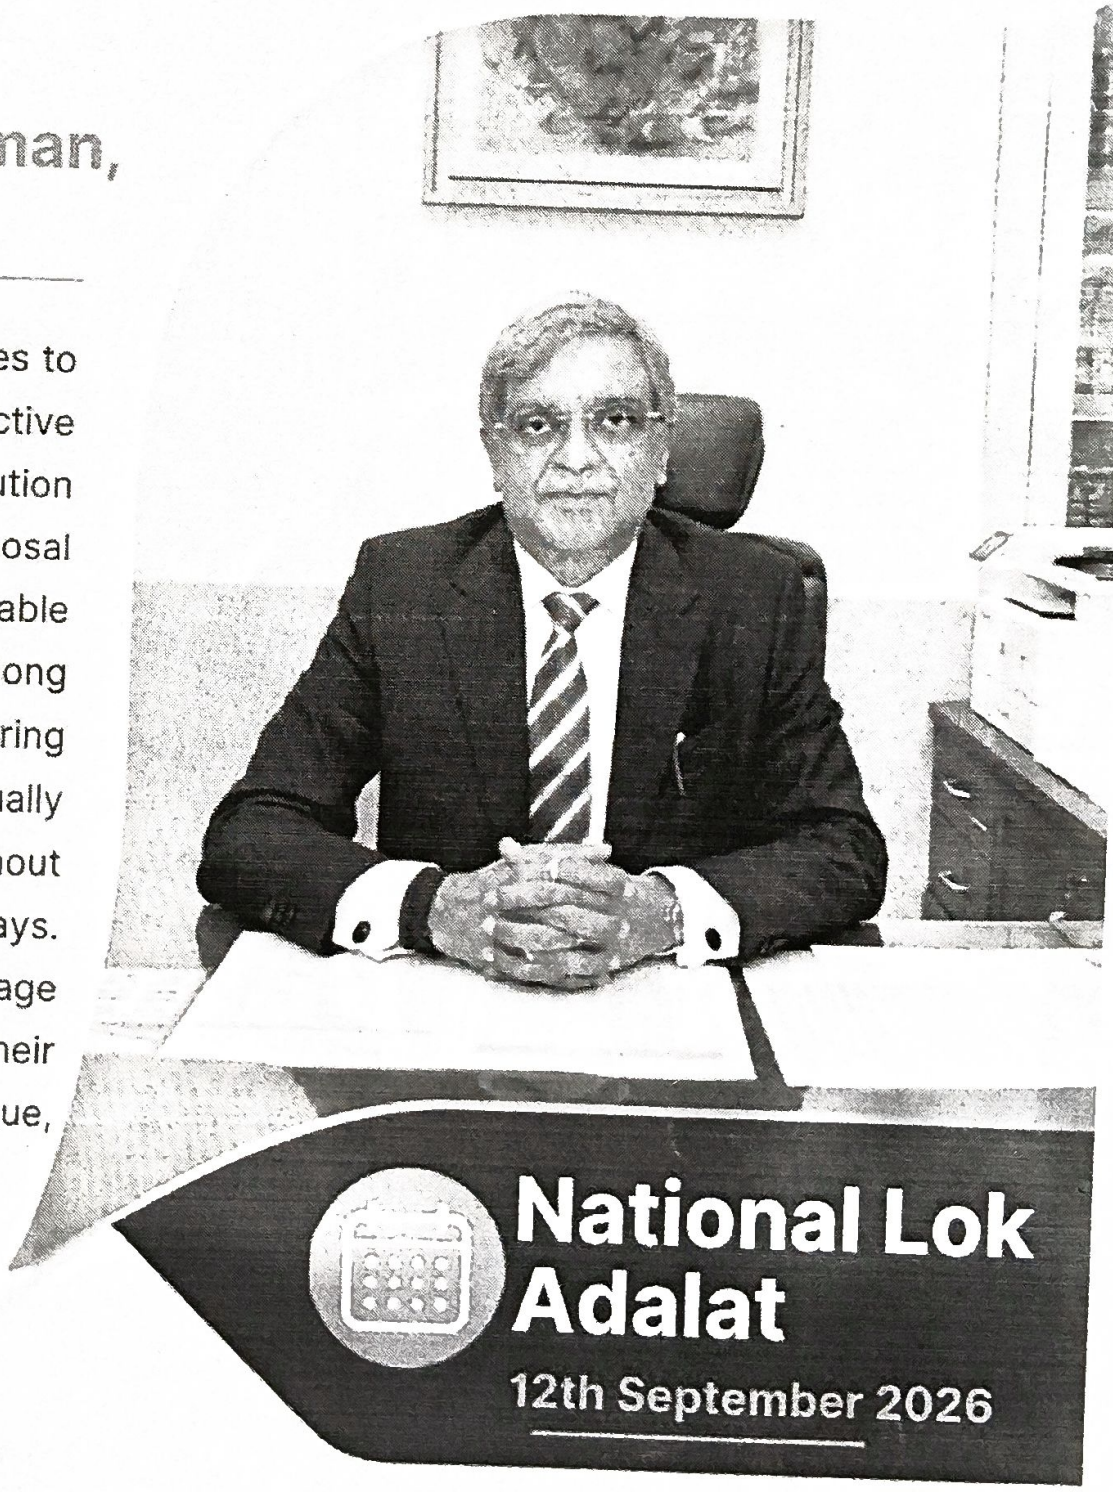

12th September 2026

Justice within reach, resolution with dignity, and harmony for all.

Message from
the Executive Chairman, NALSA

"The National Lok Adalat continues to serve as a practical and effective alternative dispute resolution mechanism, enabling swift disposal of cases through amicable settlement. It helps reduce long pendency in courts while ensuring that parties arrive at mutually acceptable solutions without prolonged litigation costs and delays. I urge citizens to take full advantage of this opportunity and resolve their disputes through dialogue, cooperation and consensus."

Hon'ble Mr Justice Vikram Nath,
Judge, Supreme Court of India,
Executive Chairman, NALSA

Justice is best served not only in courts, but also through dialogue, understanding and a genuine willingness to resolve.
