It is to inform you that under reference first cited, fifteen (15) advocates have been empanelled as the trained mediators for Mediation Center, Suryapet district, who are available to conduct mediation on the referral of cases from the courts in Suryapet district.

As per the directions under reference second cited, the officers are directed to identify the matters especially the oldest pending matters which are likely to be settled in mediation and to refer them to mediation for amicable settlement.

It is informed that all the civil cases, matrimonial cases, family dispute cases, partition disputes, property and land disputes, money disputes, commercial disputes and community conflicts etc., can be referred to mediation for amicable settlement.

As such the officers are directed to post the above matters, after completion of pleadings of both parties or at any other stage, for appearance of parties before the courts to a short date and, on appearance of the parties, to refer the matters to mediation under referral order, for expeditious disposal of cases.

It is suggested that the money suits, suits for specific performance, matrimonial disputes, pending before the concerned courts where pleadings are completed and at the stage of Sec.89 of C.P.C. may expeditiously be taken up for the presence of the parties within a short date, and to refer the said matters to mediation mandatorily for amicable settlement.

The Courts at Suryapet Head Quarters and Junior Civil Judge Court at Thungathurthy shall refer the matters to the mediation center at District Legal Services Authority, Suryapet.

The Courts of Huzurnagar and Kodad shall refer the matters to the concerned Mandal Legal Services Committees. The Chairpersons of Mandal Legal Services Committee, Huzurnagar and Kodad shall allot the said cases to the locally trained mediators on rotation basis for mediation.

Instructions to be followed scrupulously without any deviation.

PRINCIPAL DISTRICT JUDGE,
SURYAPET

To,

All the Judicial Officers working in Suryapet unit.
