LAUNCH OF NATIONWIDE MEDIATION DRIVE

"MEDIATION FOR NATION 3.0"

The General Public, Litigants, Advocates and all stakeholders are hereby informed that under the leadership and initiative of the Mediation and Conciliation Project Committee (MCPC), Supreme Court of India and implementation in collaboration with National Legal Services Authority (NALSA), District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) South Salmara Mankachar is launching the nationwide intensive campaign "Mediation for the Nation 3.0"

These special 90 days mediation drive will commence from 1st October, 2026 and will continue till 31st December, 2026. The objectives of this drive is to facilitate the speedy, accessible and amicable resolution of suitable pending court cases, minimizing long drawn legal expenses and to maintain social harmony.

ELIGIBLE CATEGORIES OF CASES FOR REFERRAL

Litigants with matters pending before any court in South Salmara Mankachar district under the following categories can Opt. for resolution during the drive-

- Matrimonial and family disputes (including cases of domestic violence and maintenance).
- Cheque Bounce cases (under section 138 of NI act).
- Motor Accident Claims (MACT) cases.
- Commercial and Money recovery disputes.
- Criminal compoundable offences.
- Labour, service and consumer disputes.
- Civil matters (such as partition, eviction and land disputes)

KEY BENEFITS OF MEDIATION-

- Voluntary and confidential: The entire process is conducted in a private, non-adversarial environment where the privacy of parties is fully protected.
- Cost and time effective: It bypasses long appellate routes, saving time and litigants expenses.
- Control over outcome: Unlike standard trials the parties can control the final agreement with the help of trained Mediator.

- Flexible Modes: Sessions can be conducted Offline at the court complex, Online or via a Hybrid setup at the convenience of the parties.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

Interested litigants or their advocates can directly approach the concerned court where their matter is pending and file a single application to refer their case to the special Mediation drive.

Alternatively, you may visit or contact the Office of the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) SSM for any kind of assistance.

The general public is strongly encouraged to take full advantage of this National initiative to resolve pending dispute peacefully and conclusively.

"Don't Litigate, Mediate: Save time, reduce stress and resolve disputes together."
