Pre-Conciliation sitting arrangement conducted by the DLSA focusing the 1st National Lok Adalat:

The Authority has organized Pre-Conciliation sitting arrangements with the parties in respect to the Pre-litigations in presence of both sides where both sides can negotiate and reach a "settlement". The objective of this Pre-Conciliation sitting arrangement is to facilitate settlement between the parties by giving them more opportunity to settle their dispute. Each Banks/Financial Institution were provided separate dates for the pre-conciliation sittings and the litigants were notified accordingly, this way more time could be dedicated to each case and both sides had ample opportunity to vent out their grievances enhancing settlements of cases. The Secretary along with the Ld. Retainer Advocates of DLSA have conducted this process.

Organizing the National Lok Adalat:

The District Legal Services Authority and Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committees (Ranaghat/Kalyani/ Tehatta), Nadia have organized the National Lok Adalat throughout the district. National Lok Adalats are a crucial mechanism for efficient and accessible justice in India. The Authority has been able to dispose a total 4,090 cases (pre-litigation and post-litigation matter) through the 1st National Lok Adalat organized on 08th March.
