C.No.132/CCTNS/PCS&S/2025-26, Dated: 17.04.2026

Sir,

Sub: Requested to issue instructions to Lower Courts on Consumption of all e-Signed FIRs and Charge Sheets–Reg.

Ref: 1) D.O.Letter No.78/C/22/2020/Trg (DC) PT3 (E21407) dated 24.12.2025 of DG, BPR&D, New Delhi.
2) File No.65/Trg./Nyaya Sanhita(23416), dated 12.03.2026 of DIG (Trg), MHA, BPR&D HQ, New Delhi.

Vide reference cited above, MHA has formulated a ranking methodology to measure the performance of States/UTs based on various parameters. The comprehensive ranking methodology is structured around four primary performance pillars and the respective weightages are as follows.

Sl.No.	Performance Pillar	Weightage
1.	Administrative Reforms	20%
2.	Operational Efficiency	45%
3.	ICT Applications	25%
4.	Integrations	10%
	Total	100%

On 13.03.2026 at 12.00 hrs a VC was held by BPR&D, MHA authorities and as per aforementioned norms it shared the performance rankings of Telangana on the following heads, performance details are shared as below:

S.No	Head	Sub-Head	Weighted Contribution	Total
1	Administrative Reforms (20%)	• Notifications Issued (10%) • Model Rules Issued (10%	9.34 10.00	19.34
2	Operational Efficiency (45%)	• Zero FIR (5%) • 60 Days Compliance (5%) • 90 Days Compliance (5%) • FIR consumed in Courts online (5%)	3.14 2.94 1.63 0.00	14.65

		• Charge sheet consumed in courts online (10%) • NAFIS Usage (5%) • e-Sakshya Usage (10%)	6.82 0.10 0.02

4	Integrations (10%)	• ICJS Integrations as per Data Sharing Matrix (10%)	5.90	5.90
	Total			54.64
5	Implementation Status of various Initiatives 1.SMS Integration 2.e-Mail Integration 3.e-Signed FIR to Courts 4.e-Signed Chargesheet to Courts	Yes Yes Yes Yes
6	e-Sakshya Id creation			0.22%
7	1) Expedite issuance of pending Notifications 2) Enforce NAFIS and e-Sakshya usage in all applicable cases 3) Operationalise e-Summons and submit definite rollout timelines for Nyaya Shruti, 4).Leverage ICJS integrations to improve online consumption of FIRs and charge sheets. 5) Zero FIR Compliance 6) 12 Success Stories have been shared. 7) Exhibition on Nyaya Sanhita 8) Training and refresher courses on Nyaya Sanhita and AI courses on i-GOT platform.

Telangana Police has been the pioneer in adopting and implementing the e-signed FIRs and Charge Sheets, since 1st July 2024 and sharing of data with ICJS/Courts. Due to non consumption of e-signed FIRs and timely non-consumption of e-signed Charge sheets by the lower courts performance index of Telangana State is lower as per the norms and measurement methodology adopted by the BPR &D in national rankings.

Identified the Actionable points which are furnished as below:

- To consume all e-Sign FIR's issued by the Police Stations at all respective Lower Courts. So far 5,02,148 e-Signed FIRs were issued in the implementation of NCLs from 01-07-2024 to 31-03-2026.

- Every month only part of charge sheets have been consumed by the Lower Courts out of all the e-Signed charge sheets filed in respective Lower Courts in a month by the IOs of respective Police Stations. From 01-07-2024 to 31-03-2026 altogether 2,42,760 e-Signed Charge Sheets were filed in the lower courts, out of which 1,46,790 cases were charge sheeted within 60 Days and 7,150 cases were charge sheeted within in 90 Days respectively.

- As per the Section 187 of BNSS of NCL there is time limitations to file the charge sheets in specific cases within the stipulated time frame.

Therefore, it is requested that necessary guidelines and instructions may kindly be issued to the Lower Courts for consumption of all e-Signed FIRs and all e-Signed Charge Sheets, promptly in order to enhance the performance of all pillars of ICJS as well as performance of Telangana Police.

Yours faithfully,

12.4
