

OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT & SESSIONS JUDGE:: YADADRI-BHONGIR

Dis.No. 846/2024/

Dated: 04-05-2024

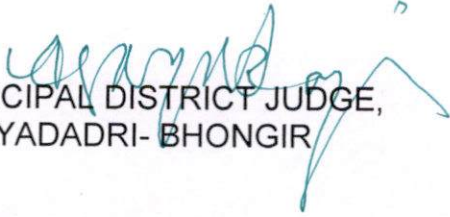

C I R C U L A R

Sub: Non-transmission of remand record to the concerned designated court immediately after the accused is remanded to judicial custody-
Directions to all the Judicial Officers working in Yadadri-Bhuvanagiri District - Issued- Reg.

It is noticed by the undersigned that after the accused is / are remanded to judicial custody by the magistrates, the record is not being transmitted to the concerned courts, i.e., I Additional Sessions Court and POCSO Court which are designated courts to Special Acts, because of which the remand extension of the accused could not be done for want of record. After accused is/are remanded, the record is supposed to be transmitted to the concerned designated courts for remand to be extended and to further proceed with the case.

Therefore, all the Judicial Officers working in Yadadri-Bhuvanagiri district are hereby directed to send the record to the concerned designated courts, immediately after the accused is/ are remanded

Any deviation in this regard will be viewed seriously.

PRINCIPAL DISTRICT JUDGE,
YADADRI- BHONGIR

To:

All the Judicial Officers in the Yadadri-Bhongir District Unit