The learned Member Secretary, Telangana State Legal Services Authority, Hyderabad, has informed that, pursuant to the directions of the Hon'ble Chief Justice and Patron-in-Chief, Telangana State Legal Services Authority, the National Lok-Adalat is scheduled to be held on 20.06.2026 for settlement of various categories of cases throughout the State of Telangana.

In this connection, all Deputy Directors of Prosecution and Assistant Directors of Prosecution in the State are requested to identify compoundable criminal cases falling within their respective jurisdictions and furnish the lists of such cases to the concerned District Legal Services Authorities to facilitate their disposal in the ensuing National Lok-Adalat.

Accordingly, in continuation of the instructions issued in the 5th reference cited, the following instructions are reiterated for strict compliance by all Prosecuting Officers. Any lapse, negligence, or deviation in the implementation of these instructions shall be viewed seriously.

Instructions:

1. All Deputy Directors of Prosecution and Assistant Directors of Prosecution shall instruct Assistant Public Prosecutors working in their respective units to assist the Courts and Police in identifying cases suitable for settlement in the ensuing National Lok-Adalat.

2. All Assistant Public Prosecutors shall function under the guidance and supervision of the Deputy Directors of Prosecution, Assistant Directors of Prosecution, and other senior Prosecuting Officers of the District, who shall remain available throughout the Lok-Adalat proceedings to provide necessary guidance, clarification, legal assistance, and support for the effective disposal of eligible cases.

3. The Deputy Directors of Prosecution and Assistant Directors of Prosecution shall remain available at their respective headquarters and attend the National Lok Adalat to monitor the proceedings. Any deficiencies or shortcomings noticed shall be immediately brought to the notice of the concerned Superintendent of Police and reported to the Director of Prosecution, Telangana, who shall remain available throughout the day through teleconference.

4. All Prosecuting Officers shall extend full cooperation and work in close coordination with the Police, Judiciary, Legal Services Authorities, and other stakeholders to facilitate the effective disposal of cases taken up in the National Lok-Adalat. They shall assist the parties in an independent, fair, and impartial manner in their efforts to arrive at an amicable settlement in accordance with law.

5. Where the police concerned propose alteration of the section(s) of law and the parties have amicably resolved the dispute and wants to live peacefully and harmoniously, the Prosecuting Officer shall extend necessary cooperation for placing the matter before the Lok Adalat, subject to the proposal being duly signed by the police and the concerned parties. However, any such alteration shall be subject to the satisfaction, approval, and orders of the competent Court in accordance with law.

6. Where the police propose alteration of the section(s) of law on account of the absence of essential ingredients of the offence, insufficiency of evidence, non-recovery of material objects, or poor prospects of conviction, the Prosecuting Officer shall facilitate placement of such cases before the Lok-Adalat, subject to the proposal being duly signed by the police and the concerned parties and approved by the competent Court.

7. The Deputy Directors of Prosecution shall submit a detailed report to the Directorate immediately after completion of the National Lok-Adalat, indicating the number of cases disposed of, court-wise and category-wise, along with any significant observations and issues encountered during the proceedings.

8. No Prosecuting Officer or ministerial staff attached to the offices of the Prosecuting Officers shall avail leave, permission, or early departure from office on the date of the National Lok-Adalat.

9. Where a Prosecuting Officer is in charge of more than one Court, he or she may, wherever necessary, interact with the concerned Police Officers and parties through virtual mode without insisting upon their personal appearance at the station where the Prosecuting Officer is present, so as to facilitate effective coordination and disposal of cases.

10. All Deputy Directors of Prosecution, Assistant Directors of Prosecution, Additional Public Prosecutors, Public Prosecutors, and Assistant Public Prosecutors shall ensure strict compliance with these instructions. Any deviation, negligence, or dereliction of duty in this regard shall be viewed seriously and dealt with in accordance with the applicable rules.
