Note :-

1. Staff are arranged in the gradation list with due regard to their grade/seniority, merit standing, and year of recruitment.
2. Considering the resolution passed in the Selection Board meeting held on 16.12.2025, the JAA category has been kept outside the above Draft Gradation List, as the relevant Notification No. HC. XXXVII-21/2017/142/R.Cell dated 04.03.2020 is currently pending adjudication before the Hon'ble Gauhati High Court in W.P.(C) No. 1055/2023, now tagged with W.P.(C) No. 6135/2024, wherein Computer Typists in the subordinate courts of Assam have been treated as equivalent to LDA, Copyist, and Typist for promotional consideration owing to identical pay structure.
3. The gradation list of Peons has been prepared in accordance with the merit indicated in the Notifications of selection published on 09.07.2018. For placing the incumbents in the gradation list, the percentage on total marks obtained by the candidates has been taken into consideration, as two merit lists were published on the same day that is on 09.07.2018. Upon comparison of the two notifications mentioned above, the candidate securing the highest percentage is placed first in the concerned category, followed by others in order of merit. The Peons appointed in the year 2023 have been positioned subsequently on the basis of the relevant merit notification.
4. The staff concerned, if having any objection to the above draft gradation list, may submit the same in writing to the District & Sessions Judge, Dima Hasao within fifteen (15) days from the date of publication of the above mentioned draft gradation list.
