PRESS RELEASE

From 1st July, 2025 onwards, National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) in association with Mediation & Conciliation Project Committee (MCPC), Supreme Court of India has launched the Special Mediation Drive - Mediation 'For the Nation' Campaign, a 90 days' mediation drive to settle pending cases in all the Taluka Courts, District Courts and High Courts of India. The campaign has started under the aegis of Hon'ble the Chief Justice of India – Shri B. R. Gavai and Hon'ble Mr. Justice Surya Kant, Senior Most Judge, Supreme Court of India and Executive Chairman, NALSA, in which efforts are being made to bring about an amicable settlement by conducting mediation in the pending cases of Courts across the state. Under which, with the aim of achieving maximum amicable settlement in applicable cases, efforts will be made to refer cases to mediation from the Honorable Court. In this regard, parties are requested to put their pending cases pertaining to Matrimonial Disputes, Accident Claims, Domestic Violence, Cheque Bounce, Commercial Disputes, Service Matters, Criminal Compoundable cases, Consumer Disputes cases, Debt Recovery cases, Partition cases, Eviction cases, Land Acquisition cases, and other suitable civil cases to mediation in the courts for amicable settlement. Therefore, the public at large is requested to put their cases to mediation in the court in which their case is pending and to provide full cooperation in efforts to resolve those cases, so that the entire public can take maximum advantage of this campaign.
