Documents Submitted	Hearing Order	Next Hearing Date
1. Respondent No. 5 submitted their Authority Letter through Bharucha & Partners for Mr. Yash Arora.	1. The Petitioner appeared in person, but the Authority Letter produced by him was found to be legally insufficient and incomplete. The Ld. Adjudicating Officer declined to take his appearance on record on account of this defect. The Petitioner is directed to file a comprehensive and proper Authority Letter explicitly capturing the full credentials and particulars of the authorized representative, duly supported by their Aadhaar/Sanad details and attested photographs, to enable cross-verification of identity. Consequently, no documents or submissions could be taken on record on behalf of the Complainant today.	Matter adjourned. Date to be notified separately.
	2. None appeared for or on behalf of Respondent No. 1, despite due service of notice effected via registered post at their recorded address as well as through electronic mail.

	3. Respondent No. 5 requested a copy of the Complaint, which has been duly supplied to them today. Let the same be recorded.
