OFFICE MEMORANDUM

SUB:- DEPLOYMENT OF DOCTOR AND NURSE IN KENDRIYA VIDYALAYAS.

The Board of Governors of KVS on its 90th meeting held on 30th August, 2011 has ratified the recommendation of the Finance Advisory Committee Meeting held on 16-03-2011 regarding Deployment of Doctor and Nurse in Kendriya Vidyalayas.

In this regards Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan has provision for medical check-up of all the students twice a year, but due to increasing enrolment in schools, check-up has become a ritual exercise in the Vidyalayas. There is a need to make concerted efforts to ensure good health for all the children. Identification of disease/disability at an early stage can provide scope for timely treatment.

The approval of the Board of Governors for deployment of Doctor and Nurse in all KVs is as follows:-

- The services of a qualified Doctor be made available for two hours per day in all Kendriya Vidyalayas with two or more sections from classes I to XII. For other Kendriya Vidyalayas the Doctors may be called on demand and as per need.
- Services of qualified Nurse be made available in all the Vidyalayas for 07 hours (one hour before and one hour after school). (07 hours)
- Proposed remuneration:-
(a) Doctor (MInimum MBBS and registered with MCI)- Rs.1,000 per day for two hours.
(b) Nurse(Diploma holder) Rs.750 per day.
- The services of Doctors and Nurses will be made available on all working days for the students except during vacations/ breaks or when the school is closed on other account like extreme weather conditions, kanwar yatra, session ending exams etc.
- Appointment of doctors & nurses will be made after following due procedure as for contractual teachers.
- Treatment to be provided by Doctors & Nurses will be of first aid nature and in case of emergency, parents will be informed the child will be referred to Govt. Hospital preferably. The main role of these medical staff will be of diagnostic/referral in nature.
- Existing provision of expenditure per student for medical checkup twice a year shall be subsumed in the referred scheme for KV's with 2 or more sections from I to XII. For other KV's the existing provisions of expenditure for students for Medical check up twice a year shall continue.
- The timings of doctor should be so adjusted that he/she is available during recess time as most of the emergencies arise during this period.
