

The development of Gramanchal (Model Village) in the Vidyalaya aims to create a self-sustaining, eco-friendly rural environment that fosters experiential learning for students. It integrates traditional wisdom with modern innovations, promoting agriculture, handicrafts, and sustainable practices to enhance community engagement and holistic education.