

PM SHRI KV MEG & CENTRE

NCC REPORT -2025

The NCC Senior Division and Senior Wing under 39 KAR BN of PM Shri KV MEG & Centre began its year of activities with great discipline and enthusiasm in January, starting with the proud celebration of Army Day at Sam Manekshaw Ground. On 21st January, the school conducted the Rajbhasha Sangham Programme, during which the cadets had the honour of presenting a dignified Guard of Honour to Joint Commissioner Shri.Dev Kumar. The month also featured a highly productive firing session at the Hosahalli Firing Range, followed by spirited Republic Day celebrations marked with patriotic enthusiasm. In between these major events, the cadets regularly attended numerous institutional parades by the PI staff, which helped them refine their drill, discipline, and coordination. February brought further training opportunities, including a detailed weapon training session at Holi, while second-year cadets appeared for their Basic Examination at CAIAS Bengaluru and first-year cadets took part in the CATC Camp at Claret School. Throughout the year, the cadets actively engaged in multiple firing practices, drill trials, cultural programmes, and training sessions, earning recognition and prizes for their performance. On 21st June, they observed International Yoga Day, and the enrolment of new cadets on 30th June was conducted based on physical fitness, mental alertness, and academic merit. An informative session on camouflage techniques further strengthened their field awareness. A special highlight of the year was the visit of Shri Manoj Kumar Pandey, Assistant Commissioner of KVS Headquarters, Delhi, as part of the National Games preparations, during which the cadets presented a Guard of Honour. The 79th Independence Day was celebrated with pride and grandeur, followed by vibrant Youth Day celebrations. The Annual Sports Day featured an impressive March Past by the cadets along with ceremonial honours to the Chief Guest, and the year concluded with NCC Day celebrations marked by competitions, cultural events, and an exemplary ceremonial March Past, showcasing the dedication, discipline, and commitment of the cadets.

In conclusion, the NCC Senior Wing of PM Shri KV MEG & Centre has had a year marked by discipline, dedication, and dynamic participation in a wide range of activities. Through parades, training sessions, cultural programmes, camps, and ceremonial duties, the cadets have consistently demonstrated exemplary commitment to the values of the National Cadet Corps. The experiences gained throughout the year have not only strengthened their physical and mental abilities but also instilled in them a deeper sense of patriotism, responsibility, and leadership. The unit looks forward to continuing this spirit of excellence in the coming years.