Dr. Ajit Kumar Bharti, PGT (History), has consistently demonstrated exceptional professional competence, sincerity and dedication towards academic excellence. A significant professional achievement is his attainment of the highest Performance Index (PI) in History in the Kolkata Region in the Class XII Board Examination, 2025–26, reflecting his outstanding contribution to students' academic success. He possesses thorough subject knowledge and effectively employs learner-centred, competency-based pedagogical practices to enhance students' conceptual understanding and learning outcomes. His innovative teaching methodologies, meticulous academic planning and effective integration of ICT have enriched the classroom learning experience and contributed significantly to the excellent academic performance of students. He demonstrates empathy, sensitivity and a strong sense of responsibility towards Children with Special Needs (CwSN), disadvantaged students and slow learners by providing appropriate academic support to address their individual learning needs. In addition to his teaching responsibilities, he willingly undertakes institutional assignments with enthusiasm, sincerity and efficiency, contributing meaningfully to the overall academic and administrative functioning of the institution.
