

PM SHRI Kendriya Vidyalaya Mau

Community participation in education means the involvement of parents and community members in the planning and management of schools that help in the improvement of educational quality.