

Society for Promotion of Indian Classical Music And Culture Amongst Youth

Kerala Chapter

---

Introduction:SPIC MACAY (Society for Promotion of Indian Classical Music And Culture Amongst Youth) is a non-profit,voluntary movement formed in 1977 by Dr Kiran Seth, a Prof at IIT, Delhi.Its objective is towards preserving our rich and diverse cultural heritage and making the youth of the present generation, more aware and capable of appreciating it. With our volunteers and supporters today, more than Six Thousand programs of classical music & dance, folk, yoga, traditional painting and other art forms are being conducted annually across the country, graced by the most eminent artistes of our times reaching out to a million youth.In Kerala, since its inception in 1987, SPICMACAY spread its wings to all 14 districts. We have hosted great legends such as Smt M.S Subbalakshmi,Ustad Bismillah Khan, Smt D.K Pattamal,Pt Bhimsen Joshi,Sri Balamurali Krishna,Pt Birju Maharaj,Guru Kelucharan Mohapatra,Kalamandalam Krishnan Nair,Guru Ammannur Madhava Chakyar to name a few in the past at various educational institutions. Last year 2023-24 we hosted almost 500 programs in different educational institutions across Kerala.

Warsi Brothers:

Shri Mohammad Khan Warsi:

Shri Mohammad Ahmad Khan Warsi is the son of Ustad Shakur Khan of Rampur.His fore fathers where court musicians of the Rampur Durbar.He received training in music from his father and received special training in singing the sufiana style of Qawwali.He has performed for Doordarshan & Akashwani and at prestigious festivals in the country and abroad which includes events like "All India lasawwut conference" organized by ICCR,Aewan-e-Ghalib,Delhi: and other foreign cities.He has received Gold medal from the Embassy of Iran,Ekta award from markaz-e-ilm-o-Danish,New delhi,Award from Government of Iran & Iraq.

We welcome you sir.

We also welcome:

Shri Waris Nawaz.

Shri Arshad.

Shri Ikhlas Hussain.

Shri Mohammad Naqvi.

Shri Mohammad Faiz.

Shri Rahat Hussain.