LUCKNOW: In an extraordinary scholastic breakthrough that has put Uttar Pradesh prominently on the global language academic map, Nandika Yadav, a brilliant scholar from PM Shri Kendriya Vidyalaya, Gomti Nagar, has scripted history. She has officially been recognized as the youngest student in India to successfully clear the advanced C1 level German Language Proficiency Examination, capturing an unparalleled All India Rank (AIR) 1.

Nandika achieved a spectacular score of 97% in the rigorous C1 evaluation, widely recognized for testing complex structural mastery, fluent expression, and professional-level comprehension. What makes her journey even more exceptional is her foundational academic record; prior to this, she cleared the sequential A1, A2, B1, and B2 proficiency examinations with a phenomenal aggregate score of 98%, placing her at an elite All India Rank (AIR) 9 national position across those combined standard levels.

Her unprecedented linguistic proficiency has opened monumental global avenues. Nandika has been granted an exclusive, fully-funded scholarship tour to visit top-ranking German universities. More significantly, her historic merit has secured her completely free-of-cost higher education at elite public universities in Germany—a massive step forward for her bright career goals.

Nandika attributes this towering milestone to systematic preparation and long-term mentorship. She undertook her intensive language training at the renowned Young Max German Academy. Over the years, her dedicated mentor, Abhishek Sir, provided critical instructional design, strategic insights, and relentless motivation that transformed her inherent capacity into a nationwide record-breaking accomplishment.

NATIONAL TOPPER: Nandika Yadav of PM Shri KV Gomti Nagar, Lucknow, who achieved AIR 1 nationwide in the C1 German level exam.
