Note -

- Applicants must ensure themselves of having all the above mentioned pre-required abilities while applying for this programme. Self decision (declaration) regarding this is solicited. This will save the time during Scrutiny.
- Applicants are also advised to consider their actual prior-knowledge & abilities rather than certificates already they have or exams passed earlier.
Those who do not have all the above mentioned pre-required abilities, are advised to apply for the previous level according to eligibility criteria.
- This programme is specially designed for Sanskrit Teachers, Shibira chalakas (spoken Sanskrit teachers), Sanskrit graduates and others involved in Sanskrit propagation related activities, who fulfil above mentioned eligibility criteria.

Scrutiny –

Scrutiny will be held through oral test cum counselling session which will be conducted online through video conference. For this candidates need to select time-slot during submission of online application. Link for counselling-session will be made available after selecting time-slot.

What will be there in the oral test cum counselling-session?

➢ Normal interaction with the applicant to understand his/her eligibility/abilities & interest.

- Applicants can clarify the programme-related doubts (if any) which are not understood through e-prospectus or through programme-details given in website.

- The candidates need to prove their abilities in the counselling session.

- If candidates found not eligible/capable for admission to that particular programme, then suitable alternative study-programme will be suggested by the counsellors according to your abilities & existing knowledge level. So this will be helpful to improve their actual existing knowledge-level irrespective of previous qualifications they have.

- Decision of the admission-committee will be reflected/notified in their profile section in admission-portal within 24 hours after the counselling. Programme-fees shall be paid only after the intimation.

- Candidates are advised to attend the session with confidence & true spirit.
