During lunch break, Aarav noticed his classmate Neha sitting quietly at her desk. She looked sad because she had forgotten her tiffin at home. Aarav felt sympathy. Without thinking twice, he opened his lunchbox and said, "Neha, come, share my lunch with me."

Neha's face lit up with joy. She thanked Aarav and happily ate a few bites. Seeing this, other classmates quickly noticed and decided to help. Some offered sandwiches, shared fruits, and others gave small snacks. Soon, Neha's plate was full, and a bright smile replaced her sadness. She felt cared for.

The teacher observed their actions and praised the class. "You all have shown that sharing is a beautiful way to care for others," she said. "A small act of generosity can make a big difference." The class clapped, realizing how simple kindness spreads happiness. Aarav felt proud that his gesture brought so many smiles. He learned that sharing is about showing love, concern, and friendship, making the classroom a joyful place.

Moral- Caring for others makes the world a better place.
