Message from the Principal

It gives me immense pleasure to present the new edition of our e-magazine, a vibrant platform that reflects the creativity, talent, and intellectual growth of our students. Kendriya Vidyalaya Delhi Cantt has always believed in nurturing holistic development, and this publication is a testament to the abilities and imagination of our young learners.

In a world evolving at a remarkable pace, our responsibility as educators is not only to impart knowledge but to inspire our students to think critically, innovate fearlessly, and uphold values that shape responsible citizens. I am proud of the efforts of the entire school community—teachers, students, and parents—whose collaboration has made this magazine possible.

I congratulate the editorial team for their dedication and commend our students for contributing their best work. May this magazine continue to motivate learners to express themselves and achieve excellence in every endeavour.

Message from the Vice Principal

It is a moment of pride to witness the creativity and enthusiasm showcased in our school' newsletter. This platform offers students the opportunity to express their thoughts, explore new ideas, and highlight their talents beyond the classroom.

Rakesh Kumar Yadav
Vice Principal

At KV Delhi Cantt, we strive to create an environment where curiosity thrives and learning becomes a joyful experience. I appreciate the sincere efforts of our teachers and the dedication of our students who have contributed to this publication.

May this newsletter continue to inspire young minds and encourage them to aim high, dream big, and work hard.

Headmistress

Message from the Headmistress

It brings me great joy to see our students express themselves through this e-magazine. Each article, poem, drawing, and write-up reflects the imagination, awareness, and confidence of our young learners.

Primary education lays the foundation for lifelong learning. Through activities like these, children learn to observe, think creatively, and communicate effectively. I congratulate all contributors and extend my appreciation to the teachers for guiding and motivating the students.

Wishing everyone continued success and joyful learning.
