

BALA Concept

Building as learning aid is initiated in our school. It shows the culture of Assam and Balvatika room is designed with educational content. It helps in the learning of alphabets, counting, learning material linked with textbook and different type of paintings. It integrates art with learning and gives students an opportunity to actively participate in the process and learn.

