

Community Participation

When parents, caregivers and extended family members become involved in school life it has benefits for children, families and the school and creates a vibrant thriving school that is more than the sum of its parts.

We invite parents to become involved in the KVS learning community, as well as in social activities and the practical functioning of the school.

