Skill Education

A skill Education camp was held on digital training. The students were given training on how to paint in a computer, add colours to it and after that a competition was held on the theme of Say no to drugs.

world aids day