HOLIDAY HOMEWORK

ENGLISH – CLASS V

Session: 2026–27

1. Listening & Writing Activity

"Listen and Learn"

Listen to any English story/poem from TV, YouTube, radio, or a family member. Then write:

• Title of the story/poem
• Names of the characters
• Ten new words with meanings
• What you liked most about it (4–5 lines)

2. Creative Poster / Flash Card Activity

Make a poster or flash cards on Road Safety Rules inspired by Gone with the Scooter. Include rules such as:

• Wear a helmet
• Follow traffic lights
• Do not overspeed

Add slogans and colourful drawings.

Example slogan: "Safety First, Speed Later!"

3. "What Happens Next?" – Continue the Story Based on the Chapter "Gone with the Scooter"

The children burst into laughter when their ball fell into the basket of a passing scooter. The scooterist did not notice it and rode away.

Continue the story using the following clues:

• The children follow the scooter.
• The scooter stops near a market or traffic signal.
• The scooterist notices the ball in the basket.
• The story ends in a funny or surprising way.

Begin with: "Just when the children thought they had lost the ball forever…" Write the story in 8–10 sentences using simple and creative English.

4. Reading Task

Read the chapters "Papa's Spectacles" and "Gone with the Scooter" and learn:

• Meanings of the new words
• Question answers from the chapters

5. "My Summer Diary" Activity Maintain a Summer Diary for any 7 days during the holidays. Each day, write:

• Date and Day
• Weather of the day
• One interesting activity you did
• One new thing you learnt or observed
• Your feeling of the day You may also add small drawings or pictures.
